

Fall is Here!

Here's what's happening in Speech-Language Therapy during October and November!

We Are Working On:

- "I Can Do It!" attitude
- Spatial Concepts (i.e. under, over, behind, next to)
- Describing objects by attributes (category, function, color, size)
- Asking and Answering Questions
- Rules of Conversation
- Table Manners/Polite Sayings
- Expressing what we're thankful for
- Target Sounds

Vocabulary: fall colors, spiders, snakes, pumpkins, gourds, jack-o lanterns, squash, corn, candy, soup, farm, costume, disguise, wig, broom, turkeys, healthy food, leaves, rake

Fall Books/Activities

The Very Busy Spider by Eric Carle

Here A Chick, Where A Chick by Suse MacDonald

The Big Orange Splot by Daniel Manus Pinkwater

One Hungry Monster by Susan Heyboer O'Keefe

The Little Orange House (Prop Activity)

Room on the Broom by Thomas Oxford

Hungry Thing by Jan Slepian

Run, Turkey, Run by Diane Mayr

Please feel free to call or email me with any questions/concerns
540-658-6790 or nennikd@staffordschools.net

Find two books at the library about spiders. How were the books the same? How were they different?

Take a trip to a pumpkin patch. When you get back, make a list of all the things you saw/did.

Ask your family members "What is your favorite and least favorite food at Thanksgiving?"

